What is your vision for the world?

Climate Action Venn Diagram
by Ayana Elizabeth Johnson. The worksheets in this guide will help you create your own venn diagram to determine your climate action.

What inspires you to take action to address the climate crisis?

Using the butterfly model of transformative social justice, Leah Penniman described the four wings of movement change as:

Examples of each (you can be more than one!):

Resisters: protestors, non-violent civil disobedience

Reformers: educators, advocates, lawyers

Builders: creators of alternative & new systems

Healers: therapists, artists, musicians

The climate crisis requires systems changes that start with local actions. What issues do you believe are important to address?
(ex. education, green energy, forestry, alternative transportation)

Addressing the climate crisis:

what are your interests or skills?

(ex. art, science, advocacy, writing, nature)

"Apply your skills to heal the world."

-Joanna Macy

How can you use your skills to take meaningful action in your community?

What resources do you HAVE to take action?

What resources do you NEED to take action?

There is no climate hero to save us. We all must act together to address the climate crisis. Who can you connect and work with?

ClimateMentalHealth.Net

Who are your supporters to help you take action? And who do you support?

(ex: parents, friends, siblings, teachers, colleagues, faith leaders)

The impacts of collective action & organizing

ORGANIZE!

Each climate action we take can make a difference.

What are the potential ripple effects of your climate actions in your community, region, nation and the world?

How do you practice self care to prevent burnout in your activism?

(see tips at climatementalhealth.net/resources)

Physically.

Mentally.

Emotionally.

Spiritually.

“Treating each other and ourselves with care isn’t a luxury, but an absolute necessity if we’re going to thrive. Resting isn’t an afterthought, but a basic part of being human.”

-Tricia Hersey, Rest is Resistance: A Manifesto

Where, when, and how do you give yourself time to unplug and rest?

Who can you talk to if you are feeling overwhelmed, burned out, exhausted, etc.?

Joy and Gratitude

What brings you joy?
What are you grateful for?
